

Alex Megane, Hurricane

We were laying on the whitest sands
Oh sun above that seemed to foreign lands
Seems like you and me could wait forever
Oh but the clouds pulls in and the sky got hard
Then it kind of seemed like the wind beat hard
A cold wind was coming down to a now or never more
So come out of the storm why don't you babe
Tell me that you love me that your love wont change
'cause the winds blowing now gonna turn into a hurricane
So come into my heart why don't you babe
Show me what you've got if you need me today
'cause the winds coming now gonna blow into a hurricane uhh aaho, hurricane uhh aahoo o o o o (*2)
So we took cover from the pouring rain
In an old broken down forgotten place
Up on high ground where the flood wouldn't drown us
Oh the night was long the wind was cold
On your shoulder out the storm awoke
We were waiting for morning to make a getaway
So come out of the storm why don't you babe
Tell me that you love me that your love wont change
'cause the winds blowing now gonna turn into a hurricane
So come into my heart why don't you babe
Show me what you've got if you need me today
'cause the winds coming now gonna blow into a hurricane