

Alex Parks, Chasing The Blue

Sleep is hard,
i'm tired,
falling to sleep in your wide eyes,
i can only dream,
i can only see what you want me to see,

but i,
i can only chase,
i will only chase the blue if i've seen the blue in your eyes,
that was my surprise for you,
your eyes,
gave me all i needed from you,

Being, holding you,
makes me feel like i've got something to do,
but your already reaching for the sky,

we can only dream,
we can only see,
if you want us to see,

but i,
i can only chase,
i will only chase the blue if i've seen the blue in your eyes,
that was my surprise from you,
your eyes,
gave me all i needed from you,

and if you fall,
you rarely touch the sides,
and when you fell,
did every bit inside fall from you,
your eyes,
i'm falling from inside of you.
