

Alex & Sierra, Bumper Cars

Can't help on dream what you're thinking
Wherever you are
Late night movies care less drinking
To cover the scars

And as much as I wanna be with you
I know

You and me we're bumper cars
The more I try to get to you
The more we crash apart
No!
Round and round we chase the spots
But all that seems to lead to
It's a pile of broken cars

We're bumper cars
Bumper cars
The more I try to get to you
The more we crash apart

Good intentions, all these questions
We're sitting alone
All rise since you, all wrong directions
I'll never give hope

And it's making me wanna be with you
I know

You and me we're bumper cars
The more I try to get to you
The more we crash apart
No!
Round and round we chase the spots
But all that seems to lead to
It's a pile of broken cars

We're bumper cars
Bumper cars
The more I try to get to you
The more we crash apart
No!
This was supposed to be fun
This was supposed to be the one
Maybe we stayed too long
Maybe we played all wrong
This was supposed to be good
But I know, I know

You and me we're bumper cars
The more I try to get to you
The more we crash apart
No!
Round and round we chase the spots
But all that seems to lead to

We're bumper cars
Bumper cars

We're bumper cars
Bumper cars

The more I try to get to you
