

Alexander, Not Enough

There's something wrong with the world
Something wrong that defies mere words
None of the adjectives I know
Are adequate to show the pain
Loves still in need of love today
I watch TV, I watch my street
But the peace in my backyard is bittersweet
I take responsibility
I contradict the things I see
But I'm inheriting in a past
So repeat
I can keep on hoping, it's not enough
I can say I'm sorry, it's not enough
'Cause if I can't
Get it up and practice what I preach
It's not enough
Just not enough
I'm judging you, but I do it, too
It's easy to be a hero in your living room
A little goes a long way
Act locally, love globally
If each one teach one, that would be more
More than enough for me
I can keep on hoping, it's not enough
I can say I'm sorry, it's not enough
'Cause if I can't
Get it up and practice what I preach
It's not enough
Just not enough
What can I do?
When can I start?
How can I change?
Who can I love?
Where can I lead?
What can I change?
What can I say?
How can I help?
How can I change?
How can I change?
How can I change?
Yeaah!
I can keep on hoping, it's not enough
I can say I'm sorry, it's not enough
'Cause if I can't
Get it up and practice what I preach
It's not enough (babe)
Just not enough
I can keep on hoping, it's not enough (it's not enough babe!)
I can say I'm sorry, it's not enough (yeaaah!)
'Cause if I can't
Get it up and practice what I preach
It's not enough (babe)
Just not enough...