

Alexander O'Neal, All True Man

When you need a friend
Someone you can lean on
Who will understand
Understand your problems
When you need a lover, woo
Someone who will satisfy
Don't you call no other, no, no
Just call me anytime
I'll be there to fulfill your every need
If you want a man strong, but sensitive
(Ooh, baby)
Anything you need, I'll be willing to give
Every day and night
(Ah)
I will treat you right
You need an all true man
(I'm a man, I'm an all man)
When you need to cry
I'll be there to dry your eyes
You don't have to suffer no more
It'll be alright
