

Alexander O'Neal, The Lovers

You see that lovers win every time
You must hold on to the love that you find
In the world of mass confusion one thing I find
It seems that lovers win every time
You must abide by the golden rule
Do unto others as they do unto you
'Coz what goes around comes around
Here what I see
Why look tomorrow if you see it today?
You see that lovers win every time
You must hold on to the love that you find
In the world of mass confusion one thing I find
It seems that lovers win every time
My love's getting stronger everyday
I keep the feeling in the love we make
If you worry about your feelings, they'll be fine
'Coz I'm a lover babe, I won't let you down
So baby, don't let people interfere
Just c'mon and love me your way
'Coz there's nothin' better than to know
That you are a lover, lover
I really wanna be your lover, babe
I really wanna be your lover
It seems that lovers win every time
You must hold on to the love that you find
In the world of mass confusion one thing I find
It seems that lovers win every time
I really wanna be your lover, babe
I really wanna be your lover
Don't you know that lovers
That lovers win every time
You must hold on to the love that you find
In the world of mass confusion one thing I find
It seems that lovers win every time
I really wanna be
I really wanna be your lover
(Wanna be your lover)
I really wanna be
I really wanna be your lover
(Hey, hey, hey, yeah)
I really wanna be
I really wanna be your lover
(You and me, girl)
I really wanna be
I really wanna be your lover
That lovers win every time
You must hold on to the love that you find
In the world of mass confusion one thing I find
It seems that lovers win every time, oh baby
I really wanna be
I really wanna be your lover
(I've got to be, baby)
I really wanna be
I really wanna be your lover
(Want to be your no.1)
I really wanna be
I really wanna be your lover
(Oh, lover, girl)
I really wanna be
I really wanna be your lover
I really wanna be
I really wanna be your lover
(Wanna be your lover)
I really wanna be

I really wanna be your lover
(Got to be your lover)
I really wanna be
I really wanna be your lover
(I wanna be your man)
I really wanna be
I really wanna be your lover
(Hey baby)
