

Alexander, Stay

She's the grass on the other side
Caught her eye, had a smile
And a bottle of wine
Red lips, tight hips
She was out there to play
I was her game
And she saved the last dance for me
Forgive me for falling down
Forgive me for losing ground
Stay
With you an every day
Save me from drowning
Come ease the pain I'm in
Stay
Your love is everything
For you I'd do anything
To make you stay
And she knows how to take you down
I should go, walk away
But I don't know how
Never thought in my life I would be untrue
It's so easy to stay 'till it happens to you
Forgive me for falling down
Forgive me for losing ground
Stay
With you an every day
Save me from drowning
Come ease the pain I'm in
Stay
Your love is everything
For you I'd do anything
To make you stay
Stay.....
So tempted
By desire
Burned my fire
Swept away
Stay
Your love is everything
Stay
With you an every day
Save me from drowning
Stay
Your love is everything
For you I'd do anything
Stay, stay...
