

Alexia, Summerlovers

Sitting in the silence kissing under the stars
There's no better place tonight I'd rather be baby
I don't wanna see this passion falling apart
Nothing really matters if you wanna leave darling

Without your love I'll never be the same (no beat in my heart)
Without your smile I'll never feel that way (no beat in my soul)
Without your soul I'll never see the light
But this time I know... can't you see!

Summerlovers are always just like this
Boys and girls who fall in love on the beach
They can be together but love won't last forever
Summerlovers will always be just
Like you and me

Sitting in the silence watching summer go by
There's no need to say this love is driving me crazy
Babe I can't believe it, but we just say goodbye
Suddenly I feel I'm gonna miss you my darling

Without your love I'll never be the same
Without your smile I'll never feel that way
Without your soul I'll never see the light
But this time I know... can't you see!

Summerlovers are always just like this...
