

Alexis Strum, Stay Until Summer

So I'll stay until summer
Before the leaves come falling down
Only stay until summer
'Cause I ain't the kind who sticks around
Way to go think I broke another heart, another home!
Cutting loose, down the tools, one more excuse to be alone, alone
Nothing is sacred if you don't make it
Don't think I was made for loving
So I'll stay until summer
Before the leaves come falling down
Only stay until summer
'Cause I ain't the kind who sticks around
Say goodnight, travel light and leave no trace along the way
Same old trees, different dreams, another reason to escape, to escape
Don't be mistaken, shadows are vacant
This one ain't made for loving
So I'll stay until summer
Before the leaves come falling down
Only stay until summer
'Cause I ain't the kind who sticks around
Tell you I'm nothing
Nothing to cling to Nothing is easier than this
I'm giving you nothing
Why would you do this
Why would you do this to yourself?
