Alexisonfire, You Burn First

I said, "Cover me if there is a fire,
'Cause I want you to burn first."
She screamed at me, "I want to be desired."
I said, "Easy girl, I know it hurts"

Let's all give thanks that I am a liar,
'Cause I've got a feeling I just might get worse.
Now there's nothing wrong with you,
I'm just tired.
And I'm in a mood for a brand new curse.

You burn first,
You burn first,
You burn first,
You burn first.

Cover me if there is a fire,
'Cause I want you to burn first.
She screamed at me, "I want to be desired."
Easy girl, I know it hurts

Let's all give thanks that I am a liar,
'Cause I've got a feeling I just might get worse.
Now there's nothing wrong with you,
I just grow tired.
And I'm in the mood for a brand new curse.
