

Alexz Johnson, Everything (Feels Like New)

Jumped out of bed, put my feet on the floor.
Seems a little like I've never done that before.
Got this smile that just won't quit. Today's my day,
And I'm taking it.
It's like I'm walking on the moon..(oh)..floatin' high
in a big balloon.
Everything feels like new. There's a jump in my step
I've got nothing to lose.
Everything feels like new to me, and I like it that way.
(nanananana)
So much fun, seeing through these eyes!
World, handling anything, I'll try it on for size.
Got the sun, got my friends, hoping this day never ends,
It's crazy, but you know that it's true.
Everything feels like new. There's a jump in my step
I've got nothing to lose.
Everything feels like new to me, and I like it that way.
