

Alexz Johnson, Shout

Listen baby to what I say
You only want
what you've thrown away
Broken tables,
yeah I'm stable
Looks like someone has won
These pirates games
I'm loading up your gun
I'm ready to take all the blame
But still I play along
While sinking in sand I find
No way I am not moving
This check mate is the last time
It's just how high you cling
There's ivory in this spine
Be cleaning up tomorrow
Keeping what you've left behind
You need a little faith to shine
To know the sun will set
It will be dark by eight
And witer's as cold as it gets Wanna make you hear
Gotta walk away
Wanna make you dance
Gotta move this way
Wanna hear you breathe
Without a doubt
Wanna make you sing
Wanna make you shout
Listen baby to what I say
You only wanted
what you've thrown away
Broken tables,
yeah I'm stable
Listen honey, listen well
I'm only yours soon as you get well
You're designer,
Nothing finer.
No I'm not in denial
I see my violins
It just taking awhile
Watching all this soaking in
Was never made of tin
Can't keep it up no more
Just like it's always been
I'm sleeping underneath your door
Gonna stop my heart
It's running wild
I gotta tie a knot
No I ain't no child.
Broken tables,
Listen closer, into a cave
I'm only here under recommend Got three wishes, clean your dishes
I don't mind that baby
I don't mind that baby
If you're coming my way
I don't mind
I don't mind

I don't mind that baby
I don't mind
I don't mind
Broken tables,
yeah I'm stable
You're designer,
Nothing finer.
Nothing finer
