&lt;/lyrics&gt;
Soon, you will close your eyes
Never again will your eyes open to that time

I merely call out
My mouth doesn't need your name
Will it resound in the heavens?
As it turns into my last song

In order for you to turn your sleeve wet
For many days, many years, an eternity

I merely remember
No one paints the scenery
Will I live merely alone?
Inside the sheet of the painting

When I am born again,
I will offer to you my life

Oh failing dragon, dance, stand, rise
Be able to shine in the empty scales
My arms are turning into clouds, into warmth
Now I can barely embrace you

I am merely repeating
My mouth doesn't need your name
Will it resound in the heavens?

As it turns into my last song
