Your fingertips can touch the place where flowers bloom
If you admire them

A deep fragrance
Submerged in memories

All the moreso
If called a love
With flowers

Even if I say the word casually
I want to continue to sing your name
In my heart

It's beautifully lonely
Like a piece of poetry

I hope for anything, while dreaming
But I'm still content
For I have my day-to-day

Even darkness
Can be golden honey

That sweet voice
In the back
Imprisons me

Even if try for a casual smile
In my heart, I continue to gaze intently
At your eyes
A painted love
Like one picture

From the moment I was born,
My aimless thoughts will
Turn into rose-colored ashes,
Won't they?

Until the curtains descend,
I am insane
The dancer who wore red shoes
You feel at all times
That you are left to dance alone.
