Alice Cooper, Make that money

When I was a boy I never played with toys Never had a friend Never laughed or cried much And when I was a boy I never played with toys Never had a friend Never laughed or cried much And when I was a boy I never played with toys Never had a friend Never laughed or cried much And when I was a boy I never played with toys Never had a friend Never laughed or cried much And when I was a boy I never played with toys Never had a friend Never laughed or cried much And when I was a boy I never played with toys Never had a friend Never laughed or cried much And when I was a boy I never played with toys Never had a friend Never laughed or cried much And when I was a boy I never played with toys Never had a friend Never laughed or cried much And when I was a boy I never played with toys Never had a friend Never laughed or cried much And when I was a boy I never played with toys Never had a friend Never laughed or cried much And when I was a boy I never played with toys Never had a friend Never laughed or cried much And when I was a boy I never played with the played