Alice Cooper, Only My Heart Talking

Anybody's dream can fall apart Anybody's mask can break Couldn't tell you how I wanted you Enough to make you want to stay I never said the words out loud I guess I couldn't get'em straight Baby, give me one more chance Before you walk away It's only, only, only my heart talkin' Yeah, it's only, only, only my heart talkin' Saying things I never thought I'd say Can't you hear me knocking Tried to fool you but it wouldn't play Cuz my heart it's talkin', it's talkin' Baby, it's talkin' Talkin'to you Every time I take it to the edge Every time I'm so afraid Don't you know I cry my eyes out, babe Every time you look away Oh, I almost dropped a tear But I caught it just in time I'd say the things you want to hear If you'd help me, help me, help me try It's only, only, only my heart talkin' Yeah, it's only, only, only my heart talkin' Saying things I never thought I'd say Can't you hear me knockin' Tried to fool you but it wouldn't play Cuz my heart it's talkin', it's talkin' Baby, it's talkin' Talkin'to you Well, I don't want to hide away Hide away without you, baby Don't you go and run away Come on and help me, baby Just a little help, baby Oh, my little baby
