Sing Low, Sweet Cheerio

Forget, remember nothing

☐The force came from the flame

☐I pass along the path inside

☐My light shining always

☐We'll get there first a name cried out

☐And looked back all the way

☐Recall falling down a lot of time was spent that way

☐But this story staring me has already begun

☐Cuz I had some vision in my sight

☐On the journey to be one

☐Help me, help please, help me please

☐The screaming starts again

☐But the trick I find something hid

☐You look, you find, I win

☐While working while the play was on

☐The play was alright then

☐Think thoughts, big thoughts

☐Take off and go back again next week

☐Right then my story ended

☐And a new one had begun

☐Cuz I had some vision in my sight

☐On the journey to be one
