

Alice Smith, Woodstock

I woke up in NYC
What a bunch of anxiety
Let's do in a couple of weeks
Your head is really fucked up dreaming
I just let it slip away
Thinking 'bout all the bills I gotta pay
I think I have my Trinity
I'll buy back on a better day
Spent ten days in a woodstock taking it easy
So would you please excuse me
'Cause I'm feeling quite sad and I'm happy again
Because I spent ten days in a woodstock taking it easy
Feeling mellow like a [Incomprehensible]
Go ahead and part the sea, just say hello to fishes for me
Wow, man what a sunny day
I can't wait to get out and play
Walk down those city streets
Laughing at all those city creeps
And I got a lot organize
I got a lot of thinking to do
Another day the sun'll be out
Another day the sky will blue
Spent ten days in a woodstock taking it easy
So would you please excuse me
'Cause I'm feeling quite sad and I'm happy again
Because I spent ten days in a woodstock taking it easy
Feeling mellow like a [Incomprehensible]
Go ahead and part the sea, just say hello to fishes for me
All the crazy fish say
Spent ten days in a woodstock taking it easy
So would you please excuse me
'Cause I'm feeling quiet sad and I'm happy again
Because I spent ten days in a woodstock taking it easy
I'm feeling mellow like a [Incomprehensible]
Go ahead and part the sea, just say hello to fishes for me
Spent ten days in a woodstock taking it easy
So would you please excuse me
'Cause I'm feeling quite sad and I'm happy again
Because I spent ten days in a woodstock taking it easy
I'm feeling mellow like a [Incomprehensible]
Go ahead and part the sea, just say hello to fishes for me
Say hello to fishes for me
