

Alicia Keys, Golden Child

Da, dum
Da, dum

Hello morning
Now I see you
'Cause I am awake
What was once so sweet and secure
Has turned out to be fake

Girl, you can't be scared
Gotta stand up strong
Let 'em see what shines in you
Push aside the part
Laying in your heart
Like an ocean is deep, dark, and blue

You are a golden child
You are a golden child

Golden sunshine's
Peeking through the grayness of your mind
Soon it will be in full view
And rain won't stain your eyes
