

Alicia Keys, Trillions

Ain't gon' let me down
Ain't gon' break my heart, baby
Only gon' love me back, only gon' fill me up, yeah
Never gon' fuck it up, no way
Definitely drive me wild
Definitely give me what I need
Never gon' hold me back, never gon' be another
I can't wait to love ya
Oh, no limit to the things that I do
Nobody else can say it ain't true
I am a one in a billion
You are a one in a billion
We got a one in a billion
Baby, where you gon' find that love?
Someone that don't do too much
Someone that don't lose your trust
Someone that'll pick you up when you feel down
Someone that'll stick around, mm
Someone, someone that could treat you right
Someone that could change your life
Tell me where you're hiding
I promise I will find you, I will, for real
Baby
No limit to the things that I do
Everybody in the world knows it's true (in the world)
I am a one in a billion
You are a one in a billion (one in a billion)
We got a one in a billion
No limit to the things that you do (no limit to the things that you do)
Everybody in the world knows it's true (everybody knows it's true)
You are a one in a billion (yes, you are)
I am a one in a billion (yes, I am)
We got a one in a billion (baby)
Oh, whoa
Oh, whoa
Oh
