Bliss

Your touch is electric

I felt it the first time you held me

The way we connected

So easily

Ive tried to define it

Searched for the perfect phrase

Ive tried to describe it

In a million different ways

(Chorus)

Its joy, its ecstasy, its truth its destiny

And even love is not enough

To tell you how you make me feel

Theres only one word for this

Ive got to admit it

You took my heart by surprise

Dont know how you did it

But baby, Ive never felt so alive

(Chorus)

Its joy, its ecstasy, its truth its destiny

And even love is not enough

To tell you how you make me feel

Theres only one word for this

I already know what the future holds

As long as you are here with me

Its joy, its ecstasy, its truth, its destiny

And even love is not enough

To tell you how you make me feel

Its faith, its honesty, its life, its everything

To say I love you is not enough

To tell you how you make me feel

Its in your smile, its in your kiss

Its the reason I exist

Theres only one word for this

Its bliss
