

Alicja Janosz, I Woke Up So Happy

I woke up so happy
When your body laid next to mine
I woke up so happy
When the first thing I saw was your smile
I woke up so happy
When I knew I'm gonna spend all day with you
I woke up so happy
When I've heard that you're happy too
So why are you leavin' me?
So why, why, why...
Why won't you spend your life with me?
I woke up so happy
When I was lyin' in your arms
I woke up so happy
And suddenly my heart started jumpin' up and down
So, so happy
'Cause I thought you could be mine
I woke up so happy
That we can spend a bit more time together
So why are you leavin' me?
So why, why, why...
Why won't you spend your life with me?
So why are you leavin' me? (tell me, tell me why)
So why, why, why...
Why won't you spend your life with me?
So why are you leavin' me? (tell me, tell me why)
So why, why, why...
Why won't you spend your life with me?
