

Alien Ant Farm, 1000 Days

Eyes they burn from stinging travel and missing you is hard to handle.
Stayed away a thousand days and things have changed like a decade.
Made the most of all my days and still I'm on the wrong page.
Now I'm home and feeling more alone. It's in your tone, so maybe I should go.
Why'd it turn from sweet to bitter? And now no cure can make it better.
Stayed away a thousand days and things have changed like a decade.
Made the most of all my days and still I'm on the wrong page.
Now I'm home and feeling more alone. It's in your tone, so maybe I should go.
Speeding faster towards disaster. This house is cancer, I won't last here.
Years go by and still no answers. No answers! Now no cure can make it better.
