Alisha's Attic, Are you jealous

Yes it was a love to die for

The monster that you are never scared me

I dared you to dare me

And now you're permanently scarred

Well I'm through with you

Treating me like you do

My heart belongs to someone else now

And I'm a fairy, I sparkle,

Look at my eyes, I'm in love

Are You Jealous?

Are You Jealous?

Are You Jealous?

Are You Jealous?

Don't make me your enemy

Don't make me your enemy

Well I'm just about as happy as I can be

His love is like a waterfall

Wet and bare like nothing all over me

Pure heaven

And he buys me flowers

They don't wilt

He doesn't have temper tantrums

Begging me back

He tells me I'm a princess,

He's the best, I'm in love

Are You Jealous?

Are You Jealous?

Are You Jealous?

Are You Jealous?

Don't make me your enemy

Don't make me your enemy

I'm not your enemy

I'm not your enemy

Yes it was a love to die for

You never thought I'd leave

Never thought I'd leave

Those heavy arms around my neck

So watch me go

And look at me

I'm satisfied

I'm satisfied

Tell me how do you feel

When you look into my eyes?

Are You Jealous?

Are You Jealous?

Are You Jealous?

Are You Jealous?

I'm not your enemy

I'm not your enemy

I'm not your enemy

Are you?

Are You Jealous

Are You Jealous

Don't make me your enemy

Don't make me your enemy

Don't make me your enemy

(satisfied, satisfied..)
