

Alisha's Attic, Dreaming

I'm only dreaming, I'm only dreaming
Like I'm staring out a window of my life
All that I could see for miles are roads to paradise
(I might get up, I might get there before my eyes)
I'm only dreaming, I'm only dreaming
I'm a goddess of the moon, got no time for earthly things
Secluded on my island wearing nothing but the breeze
Everybody laughs, everybody cries
Everybody lives, everybody dies
We all should be somebody that I recommend
But if life's the same old story,
Close your eyes to change the end
I'm only dreaming, I'm only dreaming
I'm a sultan of the sun, looking down on everyone
You want excitement, you can't find any fun
It's over there behind your cares, but you never come
Everybody laughs, everybody cries
Everybody lives, everybody dies
We all should be somebody that I recommend
But if life's the same old story,
close your eyes to change the end
I'm only dreaming, I'm only dreaming
Whoa ho only dreaming
I'm only dreaming (everybody laughs, everybody cries)
Woah ho only dreaming (everybody lives, everybody dies)
I'm a goddess of the moon (everybody laughs, everybody cries)
Whoa ho only dreaming (everybody lives, everybody dies)
Yeah I'm a sultan of the sun (everybody laughs, everybody cries)
Only dreaming (everybody lives, everybody dies)
whoa ho only dreaming
(da da da dum)
