

Alisha's Attic, Want Me Back

Said you wanted space
You wrote it in a letter
Left a bitter taste
For a while
How could you waste
All the love we made?
Throw it in my face
With a satisfying smile
Cos yeah I know we fought
But still I thought
Once said words were over
And once over you forgot
It made us strong
What went wrong?
I hope you change your mind
If you want me back
I'm sleeping in the same sheets
Haven't changed a thing
Since you left me alone
Do you want me back?
Cos I can't stand the suspense
At my heart's expense
Am I wasting my time
Tiptoeing around you?
Watching my words
Fall down at your feet
The truth is Without you
I'm incomplete
And I dream that we're tied together
When I'm asleep
Wake up, you're gone
What went wrong?
I hope you change your mind
If you want me back
I'm sleeping in the same sheets
Haven't changed a thing
Since you left me alone
Do you want me back?
Cos I can't stand the suspense
At my heart's expense
I hope you're happy
Now that I'm sad
I hope you change your mind
If you want me back
I'm sleeping in the same sheets
Haven't changed a thing
Since you left me alone
Do you want me back?
Cos I can't stand the suspense
At my heart's expense
