Alison Kraus - Happiness

With your love I was complete
Like a haven safe from harm
'Til the bitter stole the sweet
I was perfect in your arms
A precious while I had your smile
'Til it all fell apart with one change of heart
The pain and regret will fade but the fact of love will still remain
You can't always trust happiness
Love like a sweet parade 'til the saddest part when the music fades
You can't always trust happiness
If a single star I see Ever made a wish come true
It would bring you back to me
But the best my heart can do Is to love again, I don't know when Still it's worth all I fear, the heartaches and the tears Love like a lesson learned when we pass the point of no return
You can't always trust happiness
There in love's steady glow hides the power to hurt us so
You can't always trust happiness
