Alison Krauss, New Favorite

New Favorite They all say it I'll say it too You've got a new favorite

You're old standby your right hand guy is nothing new you've got a new favorite

Why do you lie about love? I saw the light go out

And should I go you won't say so I know its true I know you've got a new favorite I know you've got a new favorite

You've got a new favorite
