

Alison Mosshart, Rise

my eyes
are wide open
we can make it to the other side

our love
is on rolling
is jus love in mind

we 're both wonder broken certain back we have die on a day much like this one we gonna get back home
we will rise!

when the skies fallen
and a sun is black
when the skies come down
baby, don't come back
and a sun is black
when the skies come down
baby, don't come back

we will rise!
we will rise!

i've seen people hurting and all stories as are will never life

i've seen misery
up in the hill
and there was happines only on their lips

you and i were realy happy so be tru
so... on
we're up there
on a subways
now we're up here
on your won

and a sun is black
when the skies come down
and a sun is black
when the skies come down

we will rise!
we will rise!
