Alkaline Trio, Blackout

[Originally by The Damned]

Don't you ask me to come out When the sun does shine Let us stay here with curtains drawn In darkness you'll be mine

Let's wait for the blackout The light is too bright Let's wait for the blackout Wait for the night

Well welcome to my basement flat No windows to see through When darkness falls again, my friend We'll both know what to do

Let's wait for the blackout The light is too bright Let's wait for the blackout Wait for the night

Come walk with me upon the earth That keeps us both alive No living thing has lasted here Yet we can both survive

Let's wait for the blackout The light is too bright Let's wait for the blackout Wait for the night

In darkness there is no sin Light only brings in fear Nothing to corrupt the eyes There is no vision here At first you may find it strange But please don't go away There's power in the nighttime That you won't find in the day

There is no vision here There is no vision here
