

Alkaline Trio, Don't Say You Won't

it's a girl in here, not as sweet as you it's a guy like me, some bad tattoos an empty bar filling up with smoke and i cry in the ashes, I'm 3 days old so please don't say you wont be going out today cause anywhere i go, wont be anything, if your not hanging around it's the blackest cloud, and it opens up when i walk outside, and i'm all alone an empty cell, the furnace chokes, when i walk through the door, of my broken home

so please don't say you wont be going out today
cause anywhere i go, wont be anything,
if your not hanging around
cause anywhere i go, wont be anything,
if your not hanging around

please don't say you wont
cause anywhere i go, wont be anything,
if your not hanging around
cause anywhere i go, wont be anything,
if your not hanging around
