Alkaline Trio, Exploding Boy

I couldn't hear a word you said I couldn't hear at all You talked until your tongue fell out And then you talked some more I knew if I turned, I knew if I turned I'd turn away from you I couldn't look back I couldn't look back

Tell yourself we'll start again Tell yourself it's not the end

Tell yourself it couldn't happen... not this way

Not too late Not too late

I couldn't hear a word you said

I couldn't hear at all

You talked until your tongue fell out And then you talked some more I knew if I turned, I knew if I turned

I'd turn away from you I couldn't look back I couldn't look back

Tell yourself we'll start again Tell yourself it's not the end

Not too late Not too late Not too late Not too late
