Valentines day

So where'd you go

How was you're vacation home?

Well obviously you were busy

Too busy for me

So this how you leave me?

I'm broken hearted on the floor

My tears seep through the crack under my door

Well I am locked in, Shut down I'm so tired of pickin myself up off the ground

Chorus

So happy Valentines day

I hope the sun's out in new york

I hope he bought you roses

I hope he bought you roses

(Chorus)
