Alkaline Trio, Wait for the Blackout

"Don't you ask me to come out When the sun does shine Rather stay here with curtains drawn In darkness you'll be mine

Let's wait for the blackout The light is too bright Let's wait for the blackout Wait for the night

Well welcome to my basement flat No windows to see through When darkness falls again my friend We'll both know what to do

Let's wait for the blackout The light is too bright Let's wait for the blackout Wait for the night

Wait for the blackout The light is too bright Let's wait for the blackout Wait for the night

Come walk with me upon the earth It keeps us both alive No other thing can last in here Where we can both survive

Let's wait for the blackout The light is too bright Let's wait for the blackout Wait for the night Wait for the night

In darkness there is no sin Light only brings in fear Nothing to corrupt the eyes There is no vision here

At first you may find it strange But please don't go away There's power in the nighttime That you won't find in the day

There is no vision here There is no vision here No vision here"