

All American Rejects, Sunshine

It's a new day
It's a bright day
Eve when you stand in the dark
It's just that you've been broken
50 pieces
Today is gone
Yet I'm the only light that you see
You need someone
I know all you needed was me
Everyday we wait
If it takes too long
Just tell me something new
Forget about the sunshine when it's gone
Another pale moon
Shines like high noon
When I never felt so cold alone
It's just that you're uneasy
When you need me
Today is gone
Yet I'm the only light that you see
You need someone
I know all you needed was me
Everyday we wait
If it takes too long
Just tell me something new
Forget about the sunshine when it's gone
You can say it's right but it feels so wrong
Show me something true
Forget about the sunshine
Forget about the sunshine when it's gone
Today is gone
I'm the only light that you see
You need someone
And I know all you needed was me
Everyday we wait
If it takes too long
Just tell me something new
Forget about the sunshine when it's gone
You can think it's right when it feels so wrong
Show me something true
Forget about the sunshine when it's gone
Everyday we wait
If it takes too long
Show me something true
Forget about the sunshine when it's gone
You can think it's right but it feels so wrong
Show me something true
Forget about the sunshine
Forget about the sunshine when it's gone
