

All Ends, What Do You Want

I turned myself inside out for you
I compromised everything that I knew
Felt so unworthy and all for what, for what
All of the nights that I couldn't sleep
Tried to be all that you want me to be Just when I think that I'm close, you put me down
It goes on and on and with no end in sight
Keep on trying, trying
Never seem to get it right
Can't you see,
I can't breathe let it go
You're suffocating me
I can't breathe anymore
I'm sick of trying to change
I can't breathe anymore
I want you to leave me alone
What do you want?
What do you want, from me?
And don't try to gain your acceptance
I'm losing myself and I just can't pretend
That your words are not really hurting me, when they are
It goes on and on and
with no end in sight
Keep on trying, trying
Never seem to get it right
Can't you see,
I can't breathe let it go
You're suffocating me
I can't breathe anymore
I'm sick of trying to change
I can't breathe anymore
I want you to leave me alone
What do you want?
What do you want?
I won't, live my life,
Live my life this way
Your words are poisoning,
they drive me insane
I'm letting go,
I'm walking away
I won't change
Can't you see,
I can't breathe let it go
You're suffocating me
I can't breathe anymore
I'm sick of trying to change
I can't breathe anymore
I want you to leave me alone
What do you want?
What do you want?
From me?
