

All Shall Perish, Procession of Ashes

Give me your attention please
This isn't a drill
They're shooting to kill
Still I'm here breathing
Come with me now...
Together we can start the fire
Burning the whole world to ash
This place is set for ruination
Let's help it fall apart
Burn it all down
Striking the match as we set the world aflame
Watch it as it burns away
We all want to end it, but we're too afraid
Let me pave the way
Why should we care?
We were all forsaken anyway
I've seen the despair
I cannot take it
Together we can start the fire
Burning the whole world to ash
This place is set for ruination
Let's help it fall apart
We are disgusted by all the corruption and all the misleading depraved
All you who use us, we'll render you useless, and watch as your life blows away
Striking the match as we set the world aflame
Watch it as it burns away
We all want to end it, but we're too afraid
Let me pane the way
Why should we care?
We were all forsaken anyway
I've seen the despair
I cannot take it
We all want to end it but we're too afraid
Let me pave the way
