what went wrong? How could it take so long?
I never thought it could be so wrong this far along Maybe it was the time you crashed my car maybe it was the time i pushed you around or is it just what happens when people grow apart i have to ask myself
what went wrong? how could it take so long?
its not me we were never meant to be
i never knew it could take so much to satisfy me to pacify you Maybe it was the way we chose to live maybe it was the things we chose to do without or is it just what happens after 18 months you have to ask yourself
what went wrong? how could it take so long?
no good to wonder why we failed to be itll never take away the things you meant to me what went wrong?
what went wrong?
what went wrong?
what went wrong?
