

Alle Farben & Justin Jesso, As Far As Feelings Go

we fight all the time but tend to forget I say that you're mine but you in't mine yet we see our whole lives n pictures and text maybe that is why we don't see the end

I don't like getting caught in emotions most times we end up broken sometimes it's better if you don't

as far as I know
we're heading for a spiral and calling it the high road never looking down
as far as I know
we're living off the high notes skipping all the milestones
just feeling good for now
as far as feelings go
as far as feelings go
as far as feelings go

I hurt all the time and never slow down I don't show that side, it's better for now and I'll relieve the times we spent in the clouds you'll forgive the times that I let you down

as far as I know
as far as I know
we're living off the high notes
as far as feelings go
as far as feelings go
as far as feelings go
