

Allison Crowe, Silence

Silence
In the darkness of your soul
Following your call
Grey skies
Belong to me
Open my eyes
Rain falls
On you
On me
I cannot control
Where I am
supposed to be
Bring the winds
That carry you
Bring them to me
I will hold
This rebel light
This renegade sea
Rain falls
On you
On me
You cannot control
Where you
Are supposed to be
I wait in the dark
I carry these chains
I roam through this night
No Ill not open the door
For you to be free
For you to take flight
Rain falls
On you
On me
we cannot control
Where we
Are supposed to be
