

Allison Moorer, Is It Worth It

(Allison Moorer/Doyle Primm)

Is it worth it
You gotta wonder
No sane person
Would say it was
It's for certain
We're going under
Things ain't working
Between the two of us
Is it worth it
To go on trying
We keep rehearsing
And getting worse
Let's close the curtain
This act's dying
We did our version
It didn't work
Is it worth
The price we are paying
Is it worth
The damage being done
Is it worth
The both of us staying
If you think so
Then you're the only one
Is it worth it
What are we doing
Let's not be martyrs
For the sake of love
This is a burden
Of our own choosing
It'd be smarter
If we gave up
