

Allred, Crooked

Open the door
And stare at the sky
I've been here before
Still I don't know why
It feels like home
Isn't home
When you're gone
Away from me
"Breathe it all in
The sweetest sea breeze
And it never ends
Cause I'm starting to leave"
It feels like home
Isn't home
When you're gone
Away from me
It feels like home
Isn't home
Like I know know
In my dreams
Straighten me out again
Crooked as I have been
It feels like home
Isn't home
Like I know
In my dreams
It feels like home
Isn't home
When you're gone
Away from me
It feels like home
Isn't home
Like I know
In my dreams
In my dreams
