Allred, Crooked

Open the door And stare at the sky I've been here before Still I don't know why It feels like home Isn't home When you're gone Away from me "Breathe it all in The sweetest sea breeze And it never ends Cause I'm starting to leave" It feels like home Isn't home When you're gone Away from me It feels like home Isn't home Like I know know In my dreams Straighten me out again Crooked as I have been It feels like home Isn't home Like I know In my dreams It feels like home Isn't home When you're gone Away from me It feels like home Isn't home Like I know In my dreams

In my dreams
