

Ally Brooke, Gone To Bed

I tried to block you, tried meditation
I looked around, there's no imitation
Tested my willpower and my patience
And it all comes back to you, yeah, it all comes back to you

'Cause just a thought leads to a text
Boy, don't be dumb, we know what's next
We say it every time, this gonna be the last time
And we keep believin' the lie, oh, why?

Baby, if I could've, know I would've
'Cause I should've, oh, I should've
Should've left you in my head
Yeah, I really should've gone to bed, oh
Baby, if I could've, know I would've
'Cause I should've, but that good love
Got me actin' with no sense
Yeah, I really should've gone to bed, oh

Ain't no point in "could've, would've, should've"
Baby, if I could've, know I would've
Should've left you in my head
Yeah, I really should've gone to bed

No, I really don't want you to stay the night, I won't say it twice
But we kinda messed up and crossed a line like a hundred times
Best I ever had, keep me comin' back
Never been this down bad, mm

'Cause just a thought leads to a text
Boy, don't be dumb, we know what's next
We say it every time, this gonna be the last time
And we keep believin' the lie, oh, why?

Baby, if I could've, know I would've
'Cause I should've, oh, I should've
Should've left you in my head
Yeah, I really should've gone to bed, oh
Baby, if I could've, know I would've
'Cause I should've, but that good love
Got me actin' with no sense
Yeah, I really should've gone to bed, oh

Ain't no point in "could've, would've, should've"
Baby, if I could've, know I would've
Should've left you in my head
Yeah, I really should've gone to bed
