

Almah, Birds Of Prey

Destination: a thousand ways to go
Indignation: scythe that cuts your soul
Your trail doesn't end with your fears
But makes them stronger
Lies in disguise in the name of trust
The road you take away, how far you go
You know that time is a wall
And one more illusion
You die
You fail
You live in a trail
They burn
You cry
Dead glance
Inside
Forever you will keep on
Your dreams you left behind
It lives in crystal form
They're still alive
Like birds of prey!
The wolves you ride away
They fight to free their land
With fire within emotions
You stock your hate
Like birds of prey!
Now you see you're reaping what they sowed
Green are the seeds of evil, watch them grow!
And you're almost reaching the end
Arise and just move on!
Like birds of prey!
Like birds of prey!
