

ALO, Maria

Oh Maria, I'm in the dark
Searching for something that's already in my heart
You are the moon light, my source of heat
Glowing so strong and pure, so soft and sweet

Well I'm just overflowing with love for you
Cause you fill my cup and my body too
Yeah you fill my cup and my body too

Oh Maria, I know I should
I should get back to you now just like I said I would
You are an ocean, my emerald sea
I think ahead to the days when your waves will envelope me

Well I'm just overflowing with love for you
Cause you fill my cup and my body too
Yeah you fill my cup and my body too

And if we lose our balance
And we start to drift and fall
And we wind up on our knees
Well remember we still can crawl

Oh my sweetness, you know that I
I want to walk with you into these restless tides
My Maria, so endlessly
Flowing through my veins and through my dreams

Well I'm just bubbling over with gratitude
Because you take my dreams and you make them true
Well I'm overflowing with love for you
Cause you fill my cup and my body too
Yeah you fill my cup and my body too
