

Aloud, Murder Will Out

What'd you expect?
How long you think you'd get away with it?
You tried pushing your luck
Now you might have to give up the basic things
Back of the line
back of the line
back of the...
You'll do your time
You'll do your time
You'll do your...
No mercy here
For you to throw yourself on
This blank check won't clear Your lies have finally caught up
caught up
caught up
With all the facts
Sincerity is the new cliché;
Rehab politeness
It's just an apology away
Well, look who's lucky now?
Money won't help, won't let you walk
Murder will out the slyest fox
Nothing will help you outta this jam
You're acting pretty cool, but you'll soon give a damn
