

Aloud, Sometimes I Feel Like A Vampire

Let's go on the offensive
We'll take down all the fences
Wipe the sweat from your dark brow
There's no holding us back now
I can't smile with a straight face
As my mind becomes unlaced
So uptight with perfect grace
We'll go on the offensive
Life is so fucking senseless
All this silence grows too loud
There's no holding us back now
Sometimes I feel like a vampire
Living off of this empire
What to do, what to do now?
It's what's holding me back now
It's what's holding us back now
