

Aloud, You Got Me Wrong

We can make it if we get it together
We want the same things, but not how to get there
It's a waste of our time
all of this arguing
I'm trying to understand,
but you're not listening.
Don't you know you got me wrong?
It's awful tempting to be so fatalistic
It's overrated and a bit sadistic
I'd like to figure it out
I'm in agreement with that I'd like to know what you think
Well, I ain't holding back
We can get it together
Only those who'd like to see us fail
Would never want it to better
Curiosity's a coffin nail.
Don't you know you they got us wrong?
We knew it all along.
