

Alpha, Slim

Helen White :

Step outside
And feel the warmth
Much stronger than inside

Crazy path
That lead you here
Creates a place to hide.

And I'm scared to be so heartless
I'm hoping that you'll learn
There's only one and that is you

And I'm scared to be so heartless
I'm hoping that you'll learn
There's only one and that is you

Frightened eyes take in the view
Forgetting how it feels
Look around, believe yourself
The world outside is real

And I'm scared to be so heartless
I'm hoping that you'll learn
There's only one and that is you

And I'm scared to be so heartless
I'm hoping that you'll learn
There's only one and that is you

Gave myself to you
No one can deny
I'm still waiting 'til you be
So content to feel
Can't despise myself
I'm still waiting 'til
Leave me break my heart
Can't control the pain
I'm still waiting 'til.
